

ARCHITECTURAL SCAVENGER HUNT

	1. Built in 1916, this corner façade appears 8 times on the building. If you get lost this façade may help you keep on track. Location:
	2. Good as gold, this raised letter belongs to a place that is 90 years old, but has only been at this site for 22 years. Location:
	3. Fathers and sisters have worked under this celestial flower, which decorates a building done up in the High Gothic Victorian Style. Location:
	4. This façade helps bridge the gap between the two downtown areas. The structure that ho uses it might have made you wait. Location:
	5. Detailed with Italianate detailing, this lion's home once held the Green Bay Gazette. Now art and reading are beneath it. Location:
	6. Furniture was once sold here. Perhaps you'll find some phantom's art too. Location:
	7. In the building where this ram calls home is the only place in Green Bay that still has an elevator operator. It shares the name of an area hospital. Location:

	8. This sun disk is Egyptian Revival. Find it in a place that sells spare parts. Location:
	9. A corner box flower, this is one of a pair. It's near two places of record and across from something fishy. Location:
	10. Some might think you'd have to slay a dragon to find this pineapple. Instead, do some cartwheels in your mind. Location:
	11. Magicians might pull rabbits out of the place where this façade is peak. Not a jeweler anymore. Location:
	12. This column top is kitty corner from what once was a bank, or so some farmers say. Location:
Print this document. Find the architectural features on the buildings and structures within or near the four districts below. Some of the features are located within a block of the river. You can do this scavenger hunt over the course of a day, a weekend or a month. Have Fun!
